

OUR STORY

Born from the sandy soil, where the shifting landscape of weathered pine forest meets the sea, a new club has emerged, one in perfect harmony with nature.

Shaped from the vision of professional golfer Henrik Stenson, golf entrepreneur Arild Karlsen, and golf course architect Christian Lundin, Crownwood Club blends world-class design into a unique golfing experience.

A club that balances innovation with tradition and personality with generosity, Crownwood Club embodies an unmatched passion for the game, offering a private haven where genuine warmth and hospitality create a true sense of joy and belonging.

Inspired by iconic destinations such as Pinehurst, Streamsong, and Tara Iti, Crownwood Club boasts two exciting options for unforgettable golf. A private, Members-only course that embodies a rare sense of exclusivity, complemented by an innovative 11-hole “Playground” designed to promote accessibility and foster a love for the game.

OUR COURSES

The “Crown” provides a challenging yet rewarding experience, seamlessly combining precision from above with strategic ground play. It features wide, rolling fairways and a natural, flowing layout that blends harmoniously with the landscape.

The two nine-hole loops run North to South, with up eight course lengths, offering a versatile experience for players of all levels. Innovative sandscapes replace traditional bunkers, while large, undulating greens encourage endless imagination and creativity in the short game. Meticulously conditioned and highly accessible, the course is designed to provide a premier private golfing experience

“Henrik’s Playground” offers a modern, inviting, and less formal golf experience, blending fun, strategy, and playability while upholding world-class conditioning. Designed as a gateway to grow the game and inspire the next generation, it provides complimentary playing opportunities for juniors and golfers with disabilities. It also serves as the perfect setting for Members to enjoy a second round, refine their skills, or spend quality time on the course with family and friends.
